2. I've

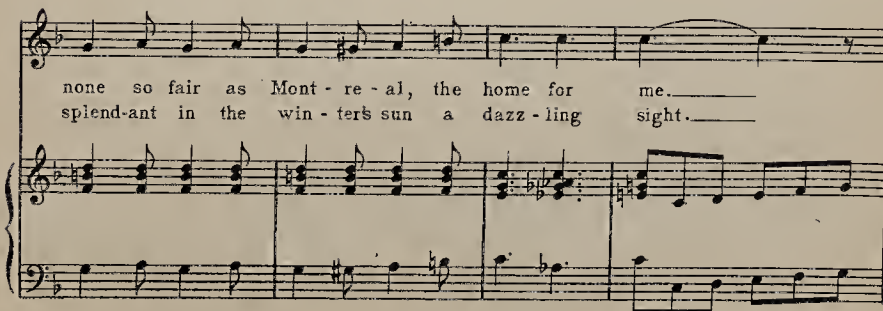

wan-dered to the South, Where the soft and balm-y breeze— Blows wan-dered East and West, I've trav-elled near and far, My o'er an o - pal o - cean and thro' tall palm. trees: Thro' home is in the North, be-neath the north - ern star. O sum-mer seas I've sailed, To is - lands fair to see. But Mont - re - al my Queen, In robe of brid - al white, Re - none so fair as Mont - re - al, the home for me.

splend-ant in the win - ter's sun a daz - zling sight.

Mont - re - al your praise I'm al - ways sing - ing,

In — my heart your name is ev - er ring - ing,

Home — to you my tho'ts are al - ways wing - ing,

Mont - re - al I'm com - ing home.
